

SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN

415 MADISON AVENUE, NEW YORK, N. Y. 10017 MURRAY HILL 8-3900

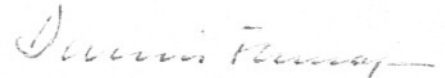

July 28, 1966

Dear Mr. Minovitch:

I regret that it has taken me so long to respond to your kind letter of June 14. I have now spent some time with your material, and I must say that it is most interesting. I am afraid, however, that it is not suited to our present needs. The principal reason is simply that it occupies a general category in which we are committed to an embarrassingly large number of other articles.

We must thus decline your generous offer. I shall return your article and your reprints by surface mail.

Cordially,

Dennis Flanagan
Editor

DF:ap

Mr. Michael A. Minovitch
Dept of Mathematics
University of California
Berkeley 4, California